The Democrats had a little rally here. They fired a few anvils and shot a gun or two. Mrs. Sue Wright's horse got his leg broken and had to be shot. Friends have given her about $40 with which to buy another.

The election went off quietly here. The new way of voting seems to be admired by all who desire a free vote and fair count. It is reported that Luther Wheatley has rented his new dwelling house to James T. Suit, and that Wheatley will spend this winter

Well, Mr. Editor, I suppose Ben will have to step down and out, and Beef-neck will step up and in. I have hearn tell that Democracy has the whole earth. I give them four years to break their neck, dig their grave and bury their bad-smelling body. Well, let them go. I hope to live in peace. I do not want to be insulted, and I am not going to be trampled under foot.

MURPHYSVILLE.

On Wednesday afternoon, November 2d, the people began to gather at the residence of John Rhodes to see his daughter Lida married to John M. Donnell of Carlisle. At 2:30 the parior, hall and living room were all filled with guests. The bridegroom and bride soon entered the parlor. They were preceded by two young men who stood the one on their right and the other on their left while they were married. The bridegroom was dressed in solid black. The bride wore a neat-fitting suit of gray. The Minister said a short coremony, joined their right hands, and pronounced them man and wife. No congratulations were offered. They went directly to the hack. Some wraps were put on, a few shook with them, they entered and were away. As they went through the gate Jim Bob Hunter threw a silver slipper after them, They were going South on a bridal tour. Their future home will be in Carlisle. The bride will be sadly missed in her home, in her circle of young friends, and in her church, but our loss is Donnell's gain. There were many nice bridal presents.

THE Trustees of the Main Street M. E. Church, Covington, sued B. F. Graziani, Treasurer of the Building Fund, for $300 which they claimed was due from him. The result of the suit was as much of a surprise to them as the recent election was to the Republicans-the church was indebted to Mr. Graziani in the sum of $250, and he got judgment for that sum.

WELLS of Paris, who had a horse stolen from him three weeks ago, while passing along Pearl street, Cincinnati, noticed the animal attached to a huckster's wagon, driven by Jacob Layman of Edentown, O. Layman told him he had traded with a colored man for the horse about two weeks ago, and readily drove Wells to Police Headquarters. Wells awore out a warrant, charging Layman with horse stealing, and then tore the warrant up and started for a 'Squire's Court, and in the meantime Layman, who was accompanied by his daughter, got in the wagon and drove off. Wells did not again show up.

In 'many countries the rainbow is spoken of as being a great bent pump or siphon tube, drawing water from the earth by mechanical means. In parts of Russia. in the Don country, and also in Moscow and vicinity, it is known by a name which is equivalent to "the best name which is equivalent to "the best water pipe."

The Emerson Piano.

The Emerson Plano Company of Boston, Mass., and 92 Fifth Avenue, New York, have had a long and successful experience in the manufacture of pianos, and bave attained an enviable reputation. These planes are of the very finest tone and of the best material and workmanship, and are sold at moderate prices and on reasonable terms. As a general thing a person buys a plano but once in a lifetime, and it is, therefore, very important that the instrument should combine as many desirable features of a permanent character as possible. Manufacturers of good reputation and of long standing should be the favored ones. The Emerson Piano Company have made and sold upward of sixty thousand planes; and they warrant every instrument sent from their factory. They will send to any of our readers who may be thinking of purchasing a piano, their illustrated catalogue free of charge; and it will be found to be an interesting publication.
